GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS MISENHEIMER TO ROWAN-CABARRUS COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Bob Misenheimer of Kannapolis to the Rowan-Cabarrus Community College Board of Trustees.

Misenheimer is mayor of the City of Kannapolis and a retired school principal. He is a member and trustee of the Northeast Medical Center, a member of the Kannapolis Rotary Club, and a member of the Kannapolis City Schools Education Foundation. Misenheimer received the Distinguished Rotarian Award in 2001. He received his Bachelor's degree in history from Catawba College, his Master's degree in school administration from Appalachian State University, and advanced certification in school administration from UNC at Chapel Hill.

The board elects the president, employs personnel, purchases land necessary for the operation of the college, applies standards for admission and graduation, receives gifts and donations, provides for the administration of all educational and occupational services, and establishes or enters into public or private partnerships for the support of the institution. There are 12 members on the board, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints four members. The county commissioners and local board of education each appoint four members.
